

The graph visualization displays a network of nodes and edges. The nodes are colored based on the episode number, with a color gradient from blue (top) to yellow (bottom). A central node is highlighted with a red outline. The edges connect the nodes, forming a complex network structure.

